VOTE IS HEAVY IN NEW YORK CITY

Half In Before Noon Today
Was Prediction.

In Chicago Polls Were Swamped
Early and Voting Proceeds
Slowly in Precinct.

CLERKS LEAVE WASHINGTON

New York, Nov. 6.—A record-breaking vote is being polled. With a perfect day voters flocked to the polls in droves. Leaders predicted the vote will be more than half in by 11 o'clock. The betting, although few bets are made, with Hughes a favorite over Hearst, is four to one.

Polls Swamped in Chicago.

Chicago, Nov. 6.—Voting is so heavy and scratching so persistent that the polling places were swamped early this morning. The vote is being cast slowly. In the Twenty-first ward it was necessary to call out the police to quiet voters. Dynamite bombs were exploded in some wards early this morning to awaken voters.

Business at Standstill.

Washington, Nov. 6.—Business is almost at a standstill in government departments today. With the exception of Secretary Hitchcock, of the interior department every cabinet officer is absent from his post of duty on campaign missions or to vote. It is estimated that 2,000 government clerks went home to vote. Of this number fully 500 went to New York state.

Democrats Claim Everything.

Richmond, Nov. 6.—Elections in Virginia are progressing quietly. Virginia certainly will elect nine Democrats to congress and possibly the full ten. Democrats are claiming a full delegation of ten congressmen from North Carolina.

Voted Her Straight.

Oyster Bay, Nov. 6.—President Roosevelt set an example to his countrymen today in expeditious voting, when he cast his ballot. He was in the voting booth just 15 seconds. It is safe to bet when he emerged he had voted the straight Republican ticket. If he wanted to do any scratching he had not time for it. The president shook hands with those about the polling place and went for a drive, leaving later for his return trip to Washington.

Big Vote in Philadelphia.

Philadelphia, Nov. 6.—Intense interest in the election in Philadelphia had the effect of bringing out an unusually heavy vote throughout the city, during the early morning hours. Polls will not close until 7 o'clock.

Quiet in Louisville.

Louisville, Nov. 6.—The election is passing off more quietly than expected with no serious trouble up to this time. A big vote is being polled.

REDUCTION DEMANDED.

In Pullman Car Rates by Texas Railroad Commission.

Austin, Tex., Nov. 6.—A 20 per cent reduction in Pullman passenger car rates is what the railroad commission of Texas is demanding, and today issued an order for hearing on Nov. 27, to show reason why the same should not go into effect at once. They will also at that time seek to pass a rule that Texas railroads shall haul Pullman cars at the pleasure of the commission. Such procedure in either case will cause all manner of commotion in Texas railroad circles.

KILLED IN A RUNAWAY.

Aged Woman Meets Death After Terrible Suffering.

Hickman, Ky., Nov. 6.—While driving from town to her home about four miles in the county, the horse of Mrs. Cora Cole became unmanageable and ran away. She being old, could not hold him, and he ran over a mile. The buggy was torn to pieces, but she hung to it and was dragged for a long distance.

War on Rebates.

Cleveland, O., Nov. 6.—Following their complaint against forty railroads in Ohio, charging rate discrimination, the independent oil refiners expect to lodge similar complaints in all other states that have railroad commissions. "We now have papers drawn and ready for filing with the Illinois commission," said C. D. Chamberlain, secretary of the National Petroleum association, today, "and we are working on a complaint to be filed in Wisconsin."

VESSELS WRECKED BY OCEAN STORMS

Many Disasters Off Coast Of Nova Scotia.

Four Are Driven Ashore by Gale and Another Is Swept Clean of Everything.

REPORTS COMING RAPIDLY.

Halifax, N. S., Nov. 6.—Dispatches today have been pouring into this city bringing news of vessels wrecked or in distress or of wrecks prostrated and of damage done by gale and sea along the coasts of Nova Scotia, Cape Breton, New Brunswick and Prince Edward Island. Four vessels were driven ashore; another, after having everything movable on deck washed away, was forced to put back to port; and the steamer Turret Bell, which went aground on the north side of Prince Edward Island last week, was driven farther inshore.

The storm was most violent in Northumberland strait; two schooners and one bark were swept aground and a third schooner wrecked near the eastern entrance.

The Norwegian bark Adoona tried to weather the gale of Rexton, N. B., but dragged her anchors and grounded on North Reef. She sprang a leak, and according to the latest information received here the twelve men constituting her crew were still on board, helpless in the severe cold and heavy gale, and in imminent danger of being swept overboard or dying from exposure. Tremendous seas made it impossible for any vessels to go to her assistance.

Near the same place the schooner Alexander, lumber laden, went ashore.

The Windsor, N. S., schooner Omega went on the rocks at Fox Point on the northern coast of Nova Scotia. Her crew of four men were rescued almost overcome by exposure and exhaustion.

A New Foundland schooner, the identity of which has not been yet learned, was wrecked last night at Campbell's Cove, at the east end of Prince Edward Island. The crew succeeded in getting ashore safely.

The 1,376-ton steamer Turret Bell, which is valued at $100,000, probably will prove a total wreck of Cable Head, P. E. I., on the north coast, where she went ashore last week.

Numerous fishing boats on the north side of Prince Edward Island were broken up during the gale last night.

On land, telegraph and telephone poles and wires throughout the maritime provinces were blown down, and it was not until today that communication could be restored.

BOAT'S CREW PERISH.

Richibucto, N. B., Nov. 6.—A boat's crew which left the wrecked Norwegian bark Adoona late today perished by the boat capsizing. It is thought five men were lost.

TOBACCO CORRUPTION CHARGED

Moran, of Boston, Tells Jerome of Evidence Against Combine.

Boston, Nov. 6.—District Attorney John B. Moran sent a letter to District Attorney William T. Jerome, of New York today in which he stated that he was informed by State Senator A. D. Hughes, of Michigan, that there is in the possession of Collier's Weekly evidence in the form of original documents, letters, telegrams and secret codes which tends to show that an organized method for legislative corruption is practiced by the so-called tobacco trust throughout the country.

BLEW OUT HIS BRAINS.

Rather Than Face New Trial for Poisoning His Wife.

Baltimore, Nov. 6.—In a cheap lodging house at some time during the 24 hours preceding 2 o'clock this afternoon, Dr. J. Baxter Matthews of Greensboro, N. C., blew out his brains with a shot from a .32 caliber revolver. Dr. Matthews was convicted March 9, 1906, at Greensboro, N. C., of the poisoning of his wife. He had been out under bail pending the decision of his appeal for a new trial, which was denied him. Relatives and bondsmen have been searching for him for some weeks.

DE CHAMBRUNS VISIT AMERICA

Count and Countess on Way to Home of Longworths in Cincinnati.

New York, Nov. 6.—Count and Countess de Chambrun and their children arrived here today on the La Lorraine. The countess said they would go at once to the home of her mother, Mrs. Longworth, in Cincinnati. The count has leave until January 1 from his post in the army.

SHOT WIFE
AND KILLED HER AND THEN
KILLED HIMSELF.

Domestic Tragedy Enacted in Presence of Teachers and Pupils of Public School.

Richmond, Va., Nov. 6.—Charles Hicks and his young wife quarreled yesterday afternoon on account of Hicks' alleged attentions to the 13-year-old sister of his wife. Hicks shot his wife twice, killing her instantly, then killed himself. The tragedy was witnessed by teachers and pupils of a school nearby.

KICKED AND TRAMPLED TO DEATH.

Huntingdon, Tenn., Nov. 6.—Jas. Pugh, a farmer, fell between two horses and was trampled and kicked to death before he could be rescued.

QUIT KITTY

DANVILLE JOINS THREE I. CIRCUIT NEXT YEAR.

President Gosnell Will Call Meeting to Dissolve Agreement With League.

Bloomington, Ill., Nov. 6.—President Holland spent yesterday in Danville and received a formal application for a franchise in the Three I. C. league to succeed Davenport, Ia. There is no doubt that the remaining association will vote to accept it. President Levering, of the Danville association, wired President Gosnell, of the K. I. T. league to call a meeting to dissolve the relations of Danville with that organization.

THAW EXPECTS TO WIN.

His Trial, Which May Not Begin Before January 1.

New York, Nov. 6.—"My trial can not come too quick for me. I expect a quick vindication." This was Harry K. Thaw's written reply to a query sent to his cell today concerning a report that he may be put on trial during the present week for the murder of Stanford White. District Attorney Smyth said there is not much chance of beginning the Thaw trial before the first of next year.

BISHOP GALLOWAY.

Continues to Show an Improved Condition.

Jackson, Miss., Nov. 6.—Bishop Galloway is reported today to be resting better than at any time since his attack, and as having rested very well for the past 12 hours. While there is an improvement in his condition, his physicians are not assured of its permanency, but signs at present are such as warrant hope for the best and no uneasiness is felt.

CUT GUEST'S THROAT.

Host Displeased With His Conduct, Killed Him.

Norfolk, Nov. 6.—Elliott Lewis was killed at a country dance at the home of Marshall Davis last night. After threatening to throw Lewis out for alleged indignities to guests, Davis seized a razor and cut his throat from ear to ear. Davis surrendered.

KILLED IN A RUNAWAY.

Aged Woman Meets Death After Terrible Suffering.

CUT GUEST'S THROAT.

Hickman, Ky., Nov. 6.—While driving from town to her home about four miles in the county, the horse of Mrs. Cora Cole became unmanageable and ran away. She being old, could not hold him, and he ran over a mile. The buggy was torn to pieces, but she hung to it and was dragged for a long distance.

Five Burglars Fall.

Brazil, Ind., Nov. 6.—Five burglars visited Brazil this morning, wrecking three safes with dynamite, but secured little booty. They escaped in a carriage drawn by two mules.

KILLED IN PISTOL DUEL.

New York, Nov. 6.—Salvator E. Volaz was shot to death in a pistol duel on the East Side today. A big crowd watched the fight but the Italian with whom Volaz exchanged shots got away.

There is only one kind of a newspaper circulation statement that is worth any consideration and that is the daily detailed statement. The Sun is the only Paducah paper printing such a statement.

NO ROUSTABOUTS FOR RIVER BOATS

Stacker Lee Offered $135 A Month In Vain

City of Saltillo Was Deserted by the Whole Gang at Paducah and Other Boats Likewise.

JOE FOWLER TO TAKE CHANCE

The City of Saltillo arrived last night at 8 o'clock from St. Louis with a big trip but could not get away until this morning on account of labor. The rousters stayed with the boat last night until the freight was unloaded, then they went up the hill and never came back. The Stack Lee offered $135 a month to rousters the other day out of St. Louis, but the offer did not bring sufficient men. The Joe Fowler left here yesterday without a man. The Dick Fowler has men but most of them are young. An officer of the Saltillo talking this morning said the scarcity of negro labor on the river would result in a marked change in steamboating. It simply will be necessary to handle the freight with white labor and to handle it in a manner that will not wear them out. At present the negro rousters have no bunks to sleep in and few would use them if they did. They are called up at all times of the day or night regardless of the amount of sleep they have had. White labor cannot stand that. To employ white labor successfully on boats will require regular watches, a place to sleep and an absence of that frenzied method of loading freight common to steamboats which employ negro rousters. The result then of white labor would be to make boats observe their schedules more closely because they would have to figure on more regular methods in making their schedules.

WHEELING, Nov. 6.—Last night unknown men placed a dynamite bomb in the scale house underneath the tipple of the Elm Grove colliery. When a fire was started this morning the dynamite exploded wrecking the scale house and partially dismantling the tipple. No one was injured. The mine was started by non-union workers yesterday. This is supposed to be the cause.

Wheeling, Nov. 6.—Last night unknown men placed a dynamite bomb in the scale house underneath the tipple of the Elm Grove colliery. When a fire was started this morning the dynamite exploded wrecking the scale house and partially dismantling the tipple. No one was injured. The mine was started by non-union workers yesterday. This is supposed to be the cause.

WEATHER PLANT.

Beats Forecasters All Hollow and Will Be Exploited.

Pacific Grove, Cal., Nov. 6.—Information has been received here of the intended establishment of a rival weather bureau in San Francisco. In Cuba and Mexico there has been found a "weather plant," said to have extraordinary powers in forecasting not only atmospheric, but seismic disturbances. Its botanic name is Abrus Precatorius Nobilis, Prof. Josef Norvack, an eminent Austrian, recently arrived in England with 20 cases of these remarkable plants. They have been found peculiarly sensitive to magnetic and electric influences. When changes occur its twigs and leaves perform peculiar and abnormal movements, each of these having its definite significance. By its aid weather forecasts can be made from two to seven days ahead of rain or fog, and earthquake forecasts as much as 26 days in advance over an area of 300 square miles. It also predicts volcanic eruptions and accumulations of fire damp in mines. Norvack will establish bureaus in San Francisco, Bombay and Tokio.

CONCRETE MINING CITY IS PLAN

American Smelting Company Will Erect Model City in Colorado.

Denver, Nov. 6.—The American Smelting and Refining company has started a new town near Trinidad and contracted for the erection of eighty houses to cost $500,000. Every building in the town will be of concrete. The only wood to be used will be on the roofs and the inside fittings. It is the aim of the company to prevent the degeneration of the coal camp into a shanty town. All of the land for public grounds has been bought and foreign workers will be prevented from burrowing in the hillsides or building tin cans houses. The Dupont Powder company is to build a town and factory twenty miles south of Denver.

Fatal Inquisitiveness.

Guayaquil, Ecuador, Nov. 6.—Seven persons were killed, and nine injured last night at Mocha, owing to the natives meddling with the brake of a car. On the arrival of the train at Mocha, a village station, opened a week ago, the cars were surrounded by a group of people belonging to the neighborhood, who inspected the passenger car with great interest. Suddenly one of the natives opened the brake and the car ran back at a high rate of speed for about a mile. It overturned and was crushed to pieces, killing or injuring all the passengers.

STENSLAND AND HERING TO GO UP

Indeterminate Sentences For Bank Wreckers.

Cashier Throws Himself on Mercy of Court at Last Moment of His Trial.

THE PRESIDENT TELLS OF LOSS.

Chicago, Nov. 6.—Paul O. Stensland, former president of the Milwaukee Avenue State bank, who was arrested at Tangier, and Henry W. Hering, the cashier of the same institution, were today sentenced by Judge Pickney, in the criminal court to indeterminate terms in the penitentiary for embezzlement and forgery. The sentence given Stensland today will not lengthen his term of imprisonment, as the new sentence is concurrent with the old.

Stensland had been brought from the Joliet penitentiary to give evidence against Hering, who it was understood would make a fight for his freedom, but Hering changed his mind and decided to throw himself upon the mercy of the court.

Stensland, however, took the stand and told of how the bank was wrecked. Stensland said during the last eight years he had lost $400,000 of the bank's money in real estate and $125,000 in co-operative store. He said he used this money at the suggestion of Hering.

DIVORCEE SLAIN; MAN SUICIDE

Killing of Woman From Ambush is Followed by Second Tragedy.

Richmond, Va., Nov. 6.—Mrs. William Garrett, a young divorced woman, was shot from ambush and instantly killed last night while returning to her home from the home of William Gildersleeve, near the old town of Abingdon, where she had been visiting. John Hawkins, a young married man, the father of several children, when accused of the murder today shot himself through the head within sight of his wife and children. The assassination of the young woman was shrouded in mystery until officers in search of a clew found in the woman's trunk letters from Hawkins which pointed to him as the murderer. Both principals in the tragedy were prominent.

SOCIALISTS DOWN MUTINY PLAN

Congress Adopts Resolution Favoring Suppression of Armies.

Limoges, France, Nov. 6.—After a lengthy discussion today of the subject of anti-militarism the socialist congress rejected a motion made by Gustave Herve favoring insurrection on the part of conscripts in case of an outbreak of war and adopted a resolution by M. Vaillant calling on the socialists of all nations to labor for the prevention of warfare by efforts to secure the suppression of permanent armies through legislation.

ESCAPES FROM JAIL; RETURNS

Murder Suspect After Flight Goes Back and Locks Himself Up.

Arapahoe, Okla., Nov. 6.—W. G. Lewis, who is charged with murder, escaped from jail with five other prisoners in a carefully planned delivery today, and after roaming around town for several hours, returned and locked himself in his cell. All the time he was at liberty the jailer, J. W. Keilum, was locked in a cell, where he had been thrust by the prisoners before they made their escape. All of the prisoners, with the exception of Lewis, fled from town and no trace of them has been found. Lewis evidently was not in the plot, for he left the jail and walked around town, making no effort to escape. When he got tired he went back.

BARS JEWS FROM UNIVERSITY

Russian Official Excludes Those Not Connected With School.

St. Petersburg, Nov. 6.—In spite of protests lodged by the students, the rector and the council of the University of St. Petersburg, the prefect of police has refused to allow Jews who do not belong to the university to attend lectures, and has ordered them to be expelled from the capital on the ground that they have not the right of residence. M. Davidoff, president of the General section of the Union of the Russian People, who was arrested here yesterday, has been released. His arrest was a mistake. Nine hundred and eighty-seven emigrants left Lithuania, Courland, today on three steamships for the United States.

MOTOR-CYCLE AND BOOZE

Caused Young Man to Collide With Telephone Pole.

Too much campaign "juice" caused the undoing of a well-known young man, who has taken an active part in the state primary. He had been hitting it up rather lively and was nervous. He stood at Fourth street and Broadway with his back to the street talking politics. A motorcyclist passed and when directly opposite the young man the exhaust was thrown on. The rapid fire explosions sounded like a Gatling eruption to the young man, who started running. He might have been going yet had it not been for a friendly telephone pole he collided with.

Cures of Deafness Startle Southern City

Although many remarkable achievements of L. T. Cooper and his medicines have been printed from time to time, none are more startlingly wonderful than his cures of deafness. His phenomenal success seems to have taken New Orleans by storm. Every newspaper in the city is devoting columns to the reports of his work. From the small boy to the be-whiskered grandpa, and from mill-Honoria to pauper, every one has some extraordinary story to relate that is more remarkable than the rest. His headquarters at the American Drug Store is besieged with callers and a dozen clerks are busy all day long selling his medicines.

Miss D. Barkenger 1926 Magazine street another caller, related a peculiar experience which, though not as remarkable as that of Mr. Ganja, is worthy of note. She said: "I have been troubled with head noises, buzzing in the ears, for some time and have been unable to find anything that would help me. I was hard of hearing, which was a source of much annoyance and embarrassment. Mr. Cooper's New Discovery and Quick Relief medicines have wrought a wonderful change in my condition in one week. The buzzing, roaring noises in my head ceased, and I can hear everything distinctly. I am more than grateful for my cure, and am only sorry that I did not know of these wonderful medicines long ago."

L. T. Cooper is the man who created a sensation in the east with his medicines and who in St. Louis a short time ago, after effecting a number of startling cures, made a personal tour of the slums seeking the worthy poor among whom he distributed a small fortune in money and several car loads of eatables.

His preparations, Cooper's New Discovery and Cooper's Quick Relief, as they are called, have had a phenomenal sale in Paducah since their introduction here, and at W. B. McPherson's drug store it is said that some of our most prominent citizens have used them with great success.

"If you do not know what you believe, find out quickly, and take a stand on it."

THINGS TO REMEMBER.

It makes no difference who are nominated for governor and senator by the Democrats of Kentucky, the candidates will go before the people with a weight of accusations about their loins that will greatly retard their chances of election. If the primary election is close, as it promises to be, the weight will be the more grisly; if the general election is close, as it should be, the handicap will be too much. Whatever is the result today, we call on the people of Kentucky to remember what Beckham has said about McCleary, what McCleary has said about Beckham, what Hager has said about Hays, and what Hays has said about all of them. Beckham's strength lies in the weakness of McCleary. McCleary's strength lies in the weakness of Beckham. The governor's platform was the inefficiency of Governor McCleary and the nothingness of Senator McCleary. The senator's platform dealt with the maladministration of Governor Beckham. Whatever votes go to McCleary will be a protest against Beckham. Whatever votes go to Beckham will be a protest against McCleary. Whatever votes go to Hays will be a protest against everybody. Those who were responsible for the state primary were wise when they set it a year ahead of the election. They hope that all the bitterness and accusations will be forgotten in twelve months, and then the party lash will be cracked over the heads of the faithful, who were impelled to come out to the primary and vote. "You participated in the primary," they will be told. "You are in honor bound to support the nominee." Pernicious doctrine, fallacious reasoning—it will hardly hold water this time. Democrats did not rush to the polls this time to support a favorite candidate; they went there to rebuke the other side. It will not be party honor, but the honor of the commonwealth the voters will have at heart at the election next year. "In the interest of harmony," they will be admonished. "Let us bury this wretched odorous incident." Then the people of Kentucky will remember that the best way to bury a smell is to bury the cause of it. One faction will be laid low at the primary. It is up to the party to kill off the other at the next general election. The Democratic party may come up smiling, in the satisfaction of having buried its past.

This has been a year of peace in the world, of commercial and industrial prosperity, but of physical disaster. Wrecks on land and water have been of horrible character and unusually marked by casualties. The earthquakes that laid low San Francisco and Valparaiso, Chile, and a number of smaller places, alone would have made the year memorable. New Orleans and the gulf coast was swept by a tidal wave that cost millions and many lives. Cuba and the West Indies have just come through a terrible tornado, while the death list in Hong Kong, China, at the result of two storms aggregated 10,000. Vesuvius again in eruption destroyed thousands of dollars worth of property, whole towns and many human beings. Nature in a wanton mood has showed us what a tiny thing is war among the nations.

Commander Peary planted the stars and stripes nearest the pole; but when the news of his achievement was broken to his wife, she exclaimed: "Oh, when will he come home?" Which leads us to observe that Commander Peary has a greater incentive to a quick and successful trip back than to his original expedition, and a richer reward at the end of his voyage than he would have won by merely discovering the north pole. Peary's coming home and other triumphs and failures are obscured in the possible realization of this one great, overshadowing consummation.

Citizens are invited to be guests of The Sun tonight. Special messengers will bring the McCracken county returns, while our special service will secure reports from Kentucky, New York and all over the country. The returns will be shown by stereopticon in front of The Sun office as fast as they are received.

Now, then, any horrible catastrophe that Providence sees fit to visit upon us will be accorded deserved attention. The big type have been recalled from their mission of enlightening the suffragists.

Whatever may be the fate of the park bond issue and the fire hydrant contract, The Sun has the satisfaction of knowing it has stood for a greater Paducah.

Big Black Whiskers, of the Utes, will pay a visit to the Great Father at Washington. That name would sound ominous were the president a czar.

President Roosevelt bagged a turkey at Pine Knot Saturday. Now, if he can add Heart's crest to his collection he will be a mighty hunter.

"My policies will be different from Dowie's," said Voliva. Naturally, since Dowie's failed. But the object will be the same.

Of course, "The Roosevelt" poked its nose closest the pole. Thought it was the "big stick."

The Sun will support the winner when he does right.

HUGHES' PRECOCITY.

At the Age of Four He Devised and Carried Out a "Plan of Study."

Frank H. Simonds, writing of "Hughes and Jerome," in the October Everybody's, tells the following anecdote:

"The genius for work stirred early in the boy Hughes. At the age of four he went to a primary school at Oswego. For two weeks he trudged to school half an hour before time, and the reports of his progress were glowing. But his parents noted that he grew discontented. One day he knocked at the door of his father's study. Permitted to enter, he marched straight to the desk and spread out before his astonished father a sheet of paper, on which was written in a childish hand:

"Charles E. Hughes' plan of study."

"Dr. Hughes looked from the paper to the child in wonder.

"What does it mean, my boy?" he asked.

"Papa," explained the four-year-old author of a system, "I don't like it at school. Teacher goes over the same thing again and again and I get tired. I could study at home and get my lessons all done in the morning." The father looked back at the paper. There were neatly written the days of the week; opposite them the subjects and hours of study. He accepted the proposition, and for the next six years the boy studied at home."

ASA T. STOWELL LOST.

Big Schooner Went Down in the September Hurricane.

Mobile, Ala., Nov. 6.—It is believed here that the big three-masted schooner Asa T. Stowell has proved another victim of the terrific September hurricane. Advices reaching here say that the vessel had not yet reached Havana, for which port she sailed, and that she has not been reported. The Stowell, with nearly half a million feet of lumber, sailed from Pensacola about four days before the hurricane for Cuba, and it is believed that she was in the path of the terrible blow and went down with all on board. The owners, in Providence, R. I., have also given up hope of her.

FRENCH POLICY OF NEW CABINET

Outlined In Declaration Of Premier Clemenceau.

Church, Tax, Army, Mining and Labor Receive Attention in His Message.

VOTE OF CONFIDENCE TAKEN.

Paris, Nov. 6.—Parliament re-assembled this afternoon. The chamber of deputies was crowded when the cabinet ministers entered and all eyes were on Premier Clemenceau and War Minister Picquart, but there was no demonstration of an extraordinary nature. The premier, when he read the ministerial declaration of policy, was followed attentively and evoked several rounds of applause, especially when he announced that the law separating the church and state, as applied, would insure a full exercise of liberty of conscience. A motion approving the government's program was carried by the great majority of 395 to 96.

As the change in the cabinet was due solely to the ill health of premier Sarrien the declaration of policy announced that with the support of the country at the last elections the government only intended to pursue actually the work of reform, and that its foreign policy would remain unchanged.

The declaration of policy outlines the concrete propositions, the application of the law separating church and state, the realization of workmen's pensions, the extension of the law governing labor unions, the reform of the mining laws, the introduction of a democratic spirit in the army by the reduction of the term of service to two years, the suppression of courts-martial, relief of the wine growers and a progressive income tax, and concluded with the expression of the government's unshakable determination to transform into facts the just demands of the democracy.

LOCOMOTIVE HITS SALOON.

Engine Jumps Track at Rome, N. Y., and Plunges Into a Building.

Rome, N. Y., Nov. 6.—A freight locomotive on the Central railroad jumped the track here today and plunged into a saloon. Engineer Albert Brown was caught in the wreckage and scalped to death, and Brakeman Robert B. Vandervoord was crushed to death under the tender. At a frog the locomotive left the rails and ran along the ground a distance of 125 feet, when it swerved and plowed straight into the saloon, a two-story frame building. There was not one in the building at the time.

ON SHOES.

Dispatcher's Office Is Being Moved Along the Tracks.

The Illinois Central dispatching office at the "Y" will be moved to Eleventh street and Broadway. The office is mounted on shoes. An engine will pull the office down the tracks. It will require about half a day for the job. The shoes are made to overlap the tracks and it will be impossible for the house to slip when being moved. Supervisor W. C. Waggener and his force of carpenters are doing the work.

III. With Yellow Fever.

Havana, Nov. 6.—Second Lieut. Noble J. Wiley, of the Fifth infantry, whose discovery on board the transport Sumner yesterday with fever caused five hours' delay in the departure of the vessel, has been removed to Animas hospital. Today his illness was diagnosed as yellow fever of mild type. Lieut. Wiley boarded the Sumner to go home on leave of absence. He arrived here recently on the transport Tarnsholm and lodged in Havana. He did not visit Columbia.

$6,000 for Umbrella.

Boston, Nov. 6.—Austin G. Metzger, a lawyer of this city, who was left $6,000 in the will of the late Edward H. Dunn, testified in probate court here during a hearing on the contest brought by nephews and nieces that the bequest was the result of his kindness in offering Mr. Dunn the shelter of his umbrella during a shower several years ago. Mr. Dunn, who was a very wealthy Methodist, left the bulk of his estate to the church, and the probate judge allowed the will to stand.

Both Candidates Out.

Marinette, Wis., Nov. 6.—D. Trotter, Democratic candidate for county treasurer, dropped dead today at his home here. R. C. Havling, the Republican candidate for the same office is critically ill.

WAY BLOOD

"A man is just as old as his blood." So were the blood only kept young, old age would be joyous with the vigor of youth.

Happily, this thing of growing old, of suffering from the diseases of old age, of allowing the blood to grow old, is fast disappearing—thanks to the scientists who have found, who have seen and examined under their microscopes, the cause of old age and old blood. This cause is uric acid.

Uric acid is always present in the blood, gradually accumulating as we grow older and by lodging in the various organs of the body it causes disease—causes the blood to grow "old" and impure, and brings diseases of the kidneys, stomach, heart, bowels and all female disorders and weaknesses.

LIFE PLANT MAKES OLD BLOOD YOUNG

LIFE PLANT is a simple preparation made by scientists to dissolve uric acid. It drives this poison out of the blood, dissolves it out of every diseased organ of the body, and so removes the cause of old age and disease.

LIFE PLANT is a simple harmless tonic solvent of uric acid—a necessity to relieving old age of disease and giving the blood the bright purity of youth. It is a necessity during the summer because the summer's accumulation of uric acid certainly causes the deaths of winter.

Every person past middle age, every person suffering from disease, may have free medical advice and free copy of valuable booklet on the common sense of "Good Health."

Write for this book and get a bottle of LIFE PLANT from your druggist.

Schiff Carries Union Card.

New York, Nov. 6.—Jacob H. Schiff yesterday became a member of the Journeyman Stone Mason and Setters' Union No. 84 of Greater New York. The financier took a pledge not to work for less than 80 cents an hour and never to have anything to do with a non-union job. He was initiated by Wm. J. Skinner business agent of the union and then he got his card. The formalities of making Mr. Schiff a union worker was necessary before he could lay the cornerstone of the new synagogue of the First Hungarian congregation of Osh Zedek.

Not Sketching Forts.

Manila, Nov. 6.—The story that a Japanese army officer had been placed under arrest here for sketching certain of the fortifications of Manila's harbor was denied today by Maj. Gen. Leonard Wood. No such arrest has been made and no Japanese have taken sketches of the fortifications. It is well known that since the American occupation Japanesse have been engaged in making maps of the Philippines. There is no existing law to prohibit them, although such laws were in force under the Spanish regime.

Snake Oil Sold by a Millionaire.

Emporia, Kan., Nov. 6.—G. W. McGraw, who has been selling patent medicines on the streets of Emporia for the past few days, has received word that he is one of the three heirs to the $12,000,000 estate left by his uncle, Thomas McGraw, a banker, who died recently in Detroit, Mich.

Mr. McGraw took the news of his change in fortune philosophically. Asked what he intended to do with so much money, he replied that selling snake oil suited him pretty well, and that there were lots of places he yet intended to visit.

Mrs. Oscar Turner in Marble. A Washington, (D. C.) letter says of Mrs. Oscar Turner, wife of the late Oscar Turner, member of congress from this district for many years, and who is well-known here:

"And while on things artistic, it is rather an interesting fact that one of the most exquisite pieces of sculpture in the Corcoran Gallery here, the marble bust of Bacchante, done by an American artist, has for its original model one of the most prominent southern women, long distinguished in social Washington, who spends a large part of every season at the New Willard. Bacchante, smiling, dimpling, bewitching, with perfect modeling of form and feature, was Mrs. Oscar Turner at 15, when as pretty Eugenia Gardner, of Tennessee, the sculptor prevailed upon her parents to allow her to sit for him. Her inspiration made the work the artist's masterpiece. Mrs. Turner, now of Louisville, has lived in official life in Washington under seven presidents, enjoying in the course of her brilliant career the unique distinction of being the daughter, the wife, the mother of a congressman—all three. Mrs. Turner is a charter member of the exclusive "Washington club," the first of the woman's clubs to be instituted, admission to which is the catchet of prestige."

NO ANTE-ELECTION FORECAST GIVEN

Tammany Foregoes Custom of Many Years.

Prediction Is That Hughes Will Win By Over One Hundred Thousand Votes.

MCLELLAN AGAINST HEARST.

New York, Nov. 6.—Revised returns from the state and city indicate that Hughes will win by 125,000. Betting is now altogether on pluralities, although last night one bet of $1,000 to $250 was registered on Hughes.

Hearst may carry Erie county, "Flingy" Connors' stronghold, but that is the only weakness feared in the Republican part of the state. In New York, Croker's old friends in Tammany and the McClellan administration are warring against Hearst. Police Commissioner Bingham has switched every policeman in the city for election day, so they cannot give their accustomed aid to the Tammany ticket. Ten thousand warrants have been secured for persons suspected of an intention to vote illegally, and every effort will be made to prevent colonization.

Hearst's Independent League is disgruntled over his throwdown of the leaders in the deal with Tammany, and organized labor is sore because "Eight Hour" Tom Rock was knifed in favor of "Dollar Gas" Grady.

Hearst papers maintain that he will win by 200,000, but the Republican poll shows that a landslide has set in the other way, and for the first time in years Tammany will issue no ante-election forecast. The outlook is too dismal.

Cost Hearst $600,000.

The estimated cost of W. R. Hearst's campaign, practically all of which has borne from his personal resources, is as follows:

Independence League clubs	$200,000
Manning the polls on election day	100,000
Campaign speakers	75,000
Halls	70,000
Lawyers	25,000
New Hebrew paper	25,000
Gilsey House headquarters	25,000
Madison Square Garden	25,000
Advertising	20,000
Stereopticons, moving pictures and canned speeches	15,000
Banners and fireworks	10,000
Lithographs, posters, etc.	10,000
Private cars, etc.	5,000

Minimum $605,000

The announcement comes from up state that Hearst is not going to turn loose election day the flood of money his followers expected. Great as is his wealth Mr. Hearst's fortune would be impaired if he granted all demands. He has spent huge sums of money already, and must spend a great deal more before the polls close on Tuesday; but he would have writer's cramp signing checks if he had filled all requisitions made on his "dough bag."

Chance for Republicans.

Nashville, Tenn., Nov. 6.—The contest in Tennessee between M. R. Patterson, Democrat, and H. Clay Evans, Republican, is close. Both parties claim the election by from 20,000 to 30,000. The vote is expected to be light on account of serious disaffection in Democratic ranks, upon which hope of Republican success is based.

Democrats See Ohio Victory.
Columbus, Ohio, Nov. 6.—The interest in the local fights and in the contest over the congressional delegation have combined to take the attention away from the state tickets, minor officers only being voted for today. The Democrats claim a plurality of 19,000 with several gains in congressmen, while the Republican committee maintains that the party will not only retain all its own congressmen, but will also keep the Democratic districts which were won two years ago.

Indications tonight are that the election in this state will return a majority for the joint statehood of from $8,000 to 10,000. The reports from Arizona seem to warrant the prediction that the joint statehood will be defeated in that territory by a large vote.

Do You Really Enjoy City Life?

How many city men will sympathize with the following view of life taken from a remarkable autobiographical serial, "Adventures in Contentment," beginning in the American Magazine for November?

"I came here eight years ago as the renter of this farm, of which soon afterward I became the owner. The time before that I like to forget. The chief impression it left upon my memory, now happily growing indistinct, is of being hurried faster than I could well travel. From the moment, as a boy of 17, I first began to pay my own way, my days were ordered by an inscrutable power which drove me hourly to my task. I was rarely allowed to look up or down, but always forward, toward that vague Success which we Americans love to glorify.

"My senses, my nerves, even my muscles were continually strained to the utmost of attainment. If I loitered or paused by the wayside, as it seems natural for me to do, I soon heard the sharp crack of the lash. For many years, and I can say it truthfully, I never rested. I neither thought nor reflected. I had no pleasure, even though I pursued it fiercely during the brief respite of vacations. Through many feverish years I did not work; I merely produced.

"The only real thing I did was to hurry as though every moment were my last, as though the world, which now seems so rich in everything, held only one prize which might be seized upon before I arrived. Since then I have tried to recall, like one who struggles to restore the vision of a fever what it was that I ran to attain, or why I should have borne without rebellion such indignities to soul and body. That life seems now, of all illusions, the most distant and unreal. It is like the unguessed eternity before we are born; not of concern compared with that eternity upon which we are now embarked.

"All these things happened in cities and among crowds. I like to forget them. They smack of that slavery of the spirit which is so much worse than any mere slavery of the body."

A Stowaway.

Young Capt. Selby, of the liner Crete was talking about the ignorance of the sea and of nautical terms that is sometimes displayed by female passengers.

"Last fall," he said, "there was a young lady from Warwick whom I showed over the steerage. As we were making our tour the steerage people were eating their dinner and I couldn't help remarking the tremendous appetite of a red-haired man."

"Great Jupiter," I said, "just look at the amount of food that fellow consumes."

"I suppose, Captain," said the young lady, "that he is what you sailors call a stowaway."

Rush Message.

A well dressed young man approached the desk in a telegraph office and wrote a message. Laying the pen down, he handed the message to the girl and said: "You can rush this for me, can't you?"

"Yes, indeed," replied the girl. "It's very important," he went on. "I must have it rushed."

"It shall go right through."

"All right," he said, turning away. "Be sure and rush it now."

When he was gone the girl showed the message to another operator standing near. "Look what is to be rushed," she said.

The message read: "Henry still loves his little wife and wishes she could be with him."—Modern Society.

POLICEMEN AND DEPUTIES CLASH

The Militia Ordered Out To Maintain Order.

Police Arrest U. S. Marshal, Who in Turn Takes Mayor Into Custody for Interfering.

WEST VIRGINIA'S TROUBLES

Huntington, W. Va., Nov. 6.—Three companies of the West Virginia National Guard are mobilized and under arms here awaiting orders to go to Williamson, where rioting has already occurred and where serious conflicts are expected on election day.

The Democratic policemen of Williamson and the Republican deputy sheriffs of Mingo county have clashed and while no blood has yet been shed, there is every probability that a bloody conflict will occur today.

U. S. Marshals Arrest Mayor.

The officials and police of Williamson are also in trouble with the federal authorities, resulting from the arrest by a policeman of Deputy United States Marshal Day of Welch. The Republicans claim his arrest was for political effect, because he secured the release of a negro arrested on suspicion of intent to vote illegally, while the Williamson officials claim he was guilty of adultery.

Fifteen deputy United States marshals went to Williamson today in charge of Major W. H. Lyons, and arrested Mayor Pinson, Chief of Police Chaffin, and other officials and citizens of Williamson charged with interference with federal officers.

The feeling on both sides in the election Tuesday is intense and trouble can hardly be averted.

"Well, miss, at the moment he is in the drawing room. We bring him down there for the change of air in the afternoon. Likely as not, he's asleep."

And presently Jack Meredith, lying comfortably somnolent on the outskirts of life, heard light footsteps, but hardly heeded them. He knew that some one came into the room and stood silently by his couch for some seconds. He lazily unclosed his eyelids for a moment, not in order to see who was there, but with a view of intimating that he was not asleep. But he was not wholly conscious. To men accustomed to an active, energetic life a long illness is nothing but a period of complete rest. In his more active moments Jack Meredith sometimes thought that this rest of his was extending into a dangerously long period, but he was too weak to feel anxiety about anything.

Jocelyn moved away and busied herself noiselessly with one or two of those small duties of the sickroom which women see and men ignore. But she could not keep away. She came back and stood over him with a silent sense of possession which made that moment one of the happiest of her life. She remembered it in after years, and the complex feelings of utter happiness and complete misery that filled it.

At last a fluttering moth gave the excuse her heart longed for, and her fingers rested for a moment, light as the moth itself, upon his hair. There was something in the touch which made him open his eyes, uncomprehending at first, and then filled with a sudden life.

"Ah!" he said, "you—you at last!"

He took her hand in both of his. He was weakened by illness and a great fatigue. Perhaps he was off his guard or only half awake.

"I never should have got better if you had not come," he said. Then suddenly he seemed to recall himself, and rose with an effort from his recumbent position.

"I do not know," he said with a return of his old half humorous manner, "whether to thank you first for your hospitality or to beg your pardon for making such unscrupulous use of it."

"Sit down," she said quietly. "You are not strong enough to stand about." He obeyed her with a little laugh.

"You do not know," he said, "how pleasant it is to see you, fresh and English looking. It is like a tonic. Where is Maurice?"

"He will be here soon," she replied. "He is attending to the landing of the stores. We will soon make you strong and well, for we have come laden with cases of delicacies for your special delectation. Your father chose them himself."

"We did not expect you for another ten days," said Meredith after a little pause, as if anxious to change the subject. "Marie said that your brother's leave was not up until the week after next."

"We do not always take our full term," said she vaguely.

And he never saw it.

"As a matter of fact," she said lightly, "I suppose that you loathe all food?"

"Loathe it," he replied. He was still looking at her, as if in enjoyment of the Englishness and freshness of which he had spoken. "Simply loathe it. All Joseph's tact and patience are required to make me eat even eleven meals in the day. He would like thirteen."

At this moment Maurice came in—Maurice—hearty, eager, full of life. He blustered in, kicking the furniture, throwing his own vitality into the atmosphere. Jocelyn knew that he liked Jack Meredith, and she knew more. She knew, namely, that Maurice Gordon was a different man when Jack Meredith was in Loango. From Merle's presence he seemed to gather a sense of security and comfort even as she did—a sense which in herself she understood (for women analyze love), but which in her brother puzzled her.

"Well, old chap," said Maurice, "glad to see you. I am glad to see you. Thank heaven you were howled over by that confounded malaria, for otherwise we should have missed you."

"That is one way of looking at it," answered Meredith. But he did not go so far as to say that it was a way which had not previously suggested itself to him.

"Of course it is. The best way, I take it. Well, how do you feel?"

"Oh, much better, thanks. I have got on splendidly the last week, and better still the last five minutes! The worst of it is that I shall be getting well too soon and shall have to be off."

"Home?" inquired Maurice significantly.

Jocelyn moved uneasily.

"Yes, home."

"We don't often hear people say that they are sorry to leave Loango," said Maurice.

"I will oblige you whenever you are taken with the desire," answered Jack lightly. "Loango has been a very good friend to me. But I am afraid there is no choice. The doctor speaks very plain words about it. Besides, I am bound to go home."

"To sell the simiacline?" inquired Maurice.

"Yes."

"Have you the second crop with you?"

"Yes."

"And the trees have improved under

"Did he indeed? On what conditions?"

Jocelyn was determined; that further delay would only make the matter worse.

"If your sister wants it," he said, "I had better tell me. I am not the sort of man to act rashly on the impulse of the moment."

Still Maurice tried to find some means of evasion.

"Then," cried Jocelyn, with flaming cheeks, "I will tell you. You were to be admitted into the simiacline scheme by Mr. Durnovo if you could persuade or force me to marry him."

None of them had foreseen this. It had come about so strangely, and yet so easily, in the midst of their first greetings.

"Yes," admitted Maurice, "that was it."

"And what answer did you give?" asked Jocelyn.

"Oh, I told him to go and hang himself—or words to that effect," was the reply, delivered with a deprecating laugh.

"Was that your final answer?" pursued Jocelyn, inexorable. Her persistence surprised Jack. Perhaps it surprised herself.

"Yes, I think so."

"Well, he cut up rough and threatened to make things disagreeable; so I think I said that it was no good his asking me to do anything in the matter, as I didn't know your feelings."

"Well, you can tell him," cried Jocelyn hotly, "that never, under any circumstances whatever, would I dream even of the possibility of marrying him."

And she was gone.

LONG SESSION OF THE LOWER BOARD

Grants Relief To Number of Citizens.

Passes Street Improvement Ordinances, Licenses and Minor Matters at Meeting.

WHAT THE SEWER WILL COST

The board of councilmen started out to adjourn last night after the filing of the finance committee's report, but business began to come so smoothly that the board remained in session until all business before it was transacted.

Councilman Herzog was absent. The minutes of the last regular and called meetings were read and adopted.

The matter of grading a fill to the Paducah Box and Basket factory on Caldwell street was referred to the street committee with power to act.

Major Yelser presented a compromise with Mrs. Jessie Wicks of $200 for damage on account of defective drainage in the hollow back of her property on North Fourth street between Madison and Harrison streets.

An estimate on an improvement to the drainage of the hollow amounting to $50 was assessed against Mrs. Wicks. The solicitor recommended that this assessment be cancelled. The motion to ratify the compromise and exemption from assessment carried.

A contract with the West Kentucky Coal company for furnishing city fuel for the season, was ratified.

A contract with Bradley Bros. to furnish the city with stock feed for three months, was ratified.

A summons on the city, relative to an alley, was filed by F. G. Rudolph, administrator, of Catharine Hessig, was referred to the solicitor.

A protest against improving an alley between Sixth and Seventh streets, Kentucky avenue and Broadway, at the expense of property owners was filed. An ordinance had been ordered drafted for improving the alley.

Major Yelser presented the costs in the Cornelius Johnson suit against the city, the costs amounting to $70.60, besides a $2,000 judgment. The matter was referred to the joint finance committee.

Engineer L. A. Washington stated that the traction company wished to extend the Broadway culvert in order to extend its lines. The company inquired if the city was to do the work, or the traction company.

The company agrees to pay for eight feet of the fill. The question was raised whether to have the fill from "property line to property line" or just the eight feet.

Councilman Katterjohn made the motion for an extension of the culvert from "property line to property line." The motion was made to include all "improved" streets built by Ed C. Terrell.

Several defects in water mains on Harrison street, near Tenth street, were referred to the board of public works.

City Clerk Henry Bailey asked for an order for dog tags and wagon numbers. The matter was referred to the license committee. Councilman Van Meter stated that his thoughts numbers should be on the harness instead of the wagon. His suggestion was also referred.

City Solicitor James Campbell, Jr., stated that there has been conflict relative to the license ordinance, and that the traction company should stand whatever expense is incurred in extending its tracks, now that it has gained the right of way over Nineteenth street. All motions were withdrawn and no action taken.

On motion the board adjourned.

done by its lines.

The city engineer was instructed to furnish a report of the number of square feet in sewer district No. 2. The sale of the delinquent tax bills by Treasurer John Dorian was ratified. The total was $4,446.51.

The report from the city tax book supervisors was received and filed.

The report of the treasurer for the month of October was received and filed.

The statement of the finance committee, amounting to $17,330.81 was received and filed.

Councilman Kolb moved that $200 be proffered Mrs. Jessie Wicks in full settlement of her suit against the city. It carried.

Ordinances Acted On.

Ordinance for sidewalks on South Fourth from Norton street to Husbands street. Second passage.

Ordinance for the reconstruction of Nineteenth street from Broadway to Mayfield road. This carries with it the necessity of a culvert between Kentucky avenue and Broadway.

The solicitor stated that provisions for the culvert can be made after the passage of the ordinance.

The ordinance was given first passage.

The report of the chief of police was filed.

Residents on West Jefferson street asked for relief from impassable streets in their section of the city.

The board once turned down the request. They asked that the action was rescinded and on motion of Councilman Katterjohn, Nineteenth, Twenty-second, Twenty-third, Twenty-fourth, and Twenty-fifth streets were ordered graveled from Jefferson street to Broadway.

The city engineer was ordered to give the traction company the proper grade to lower its tracks on Jefferson street.

Licenses Acted On.

J. P. Fowler, 200 Kentucky avenue, was granted a retail liquor license.

P. C. Smith, 1001 Finley street, was granted a retail liquor license. Goheen & Steitz, 434 Norton street, were granted a liquor license.

J. A. Cruse, 129 South Second street, was granted a liquor license.

The complaint of Mrs. C. L. Henderson for over-assessment was referred.

The complaint of J. S. Hunt for over-assessment was referred.

The complaint of Chris Lileb for over-assessment was referred.

Several deeds and transfers of lots in Oak Grove cemetery were ratified.

City Engineer Washington reported that the cost per square foot in sewer district No. 2 would be $1.48 1-2, the total area of the district 87,350 feet. The report was received and filed. The figures are approximate.

Councilman Katterjohn's motion to refer the building of a sewer on Nineteenth street to the engineer, carried.

Councilman Kolb stated that Fifth street at Jefferson street is in bad condition, holes being filled in with gravel. The matter was referred.

The motion was made to include all "improved" streets built by Ed C. Terrell.

Several defects in water mains on Harrison street, near Tenth street, were referred to the board of public works.

City Clerk Henry Bailey asked for an order for dog tags and wagon numbers. The matter was referred to the license committee. Councilman Van Meter stated that his thoughts numbers should be on the harness instead of the wagon. His suggestion was also referred.

City Solicitor James Campbell, Jr., stated that there has been conflict relative to the license ordinance, and that the traction company should stand whatever expense is incurred in extending its tracks, now that it has gained the right of way over Nineteenth street. All motions were withdrawn and no action taken.

On motion the board adjourned.

How a Section Hand Saved a Train.

Riding at night in a comfortable Pullman berth across continent, the passenger will occasionally wake up, send one flying look into the darkness, listen to the steady rhythm of the wheels beneath him, and turn over and go to sleep again with a vague feeling of gratitude toward the man in the engine cab, who is piloting the train safely through the night. How often does he give a thought to the section hand, the man who makes the track, and who holds in his hand the life not only of the passenger, but the engineer besides?

"Was that your final answer?" pursued Jocelyn, with flaming cheeks. "I will tell you. You were to be admitted into the simiacline scheme by Mr. Durnovo if you could persuade or force me to marry him."

"Then," cried Jocelyn hotly, "that never, under any circumstances whatever, would I dream even of the possibility of marrying him."

And she was gone.

Theatrical Notes

Tuesday Night...Mildred Holland, in "The Lily and The Prince." Wednesday, Matinee and Night, William H. West Big Minstrels.

To the Patrons of the Kentucky Theatre.

Miss Mildred Holland, one of the most versatile and talented actresses on the American stage, will appear at The Kentucky tonight in Carina Jordan's romantic emotional drama, "The Lily and the Prince."

This is not her first visit to Paducah. Miss Holland appeared here last year in the same drama and made a splendid impression on the theater-going public.

The "Lily and the Prince" is a romantic drama dealing with men, women and events early in the Sixteenth century. It is a human interest drama and tells a graphic story of the sacrifices made by a girl for her father. It deals with the period of the "Inquisition" and all the horrors that word implies to the ordinary modern minds.

As Angela, the daughter of a man unjustly accused, Miss Holland takes advantage of every chance in the character to which she is assigned.

From the pretty love scene in the first act, the evolution of the motive in the second act and clear through to the climax in the third act and the denouement in the fourth act, Miss Holland holds the interest of her audience.

As a portrayer of emotions, Miss Holland has few equals and no superiors on the American stage. The costumes are in keeping with the time of the events portrayed and the scenery is realistic beyond compare. That Miss Holland and her splendid company will disappoint none and her superb acting will be a source of pleasure to all is the best guarantee I can offer.

T. W. ROBERTS.

Mildred Holland Tonight.

One of the most novel, thrilling and mysterious scenes ever constructed and produced on the stage, is the last scene of the third act of "The Lily and the Prince," in which Mildred Holland is so successfully starring, and in which she will appear in this city at the Kentucky theater tonight. The stage is hung entirely in black, and represents the council chamber of the Inquisition. One single shaft of brilliant white light is thrown from above on to the center of the stage, and in this light the principal action of the act takes place while in the deep shadows to the right sit a number of masked and cowed inquisitors. At the end of this act Miss Holland usually receives numerous curtain calls. Miss Holland will read election returns between acts tonight.

West Big Jubilee Minstrels.

Have you compared them with results obtained in your section? Is your work where you are, bringing you adequate returns for the capital invested and the labor expended? If not, a change would be beneficial perhaps. A visit to the Southwest will open your eyes. Out in Oklahoma the last big land opening is soon to take place; farms are still very cheap in Western Arkansas, Northern Louisiana and the Gulf Coast of Texas.
